

Crested Butte Resort Real Estate Report

by Doug Duryea (May 2023)

Written for the Summer 2023 Crested Butte News Visitor's Guide

As we approach what many locals consider to be the most exciting time of year— summer— it's time to reflect on how the real estate market is doing. It's a question many realtors are frequently asked. Most realtors would love to say that real estate is doing "awesome", and many may be tempted to report just that. Some may declare that it is a "Buyers" market or a "Sellers" market. However, we look at the statistics to tell us what is happening in Crested Butte area real estate. This is an update to our twice-yearly report on the different sectors of the Crested Butte real estate market.

As of May 1, 2023, there were 72 properties under contract representing another $78,142,577 in potential sales dollars for the year.

While the volume of transactions has decreased this year demand for real estate remains strong as we head into the summer months. Our inventory levels remain low throughout the area. Many new and exciting building projects and homes are in the works in the valley which continues to keep builders and developers very busy. Real Estate prices should continue to remain steady this year in Crested Butte.
